Students faced future...

Stephanie Poolheco scans through some college catalogs.

Future homemakers, Jodi Manzanares and Lisa Romero, in action.

Some graduates will choose to enter the services after graduation.

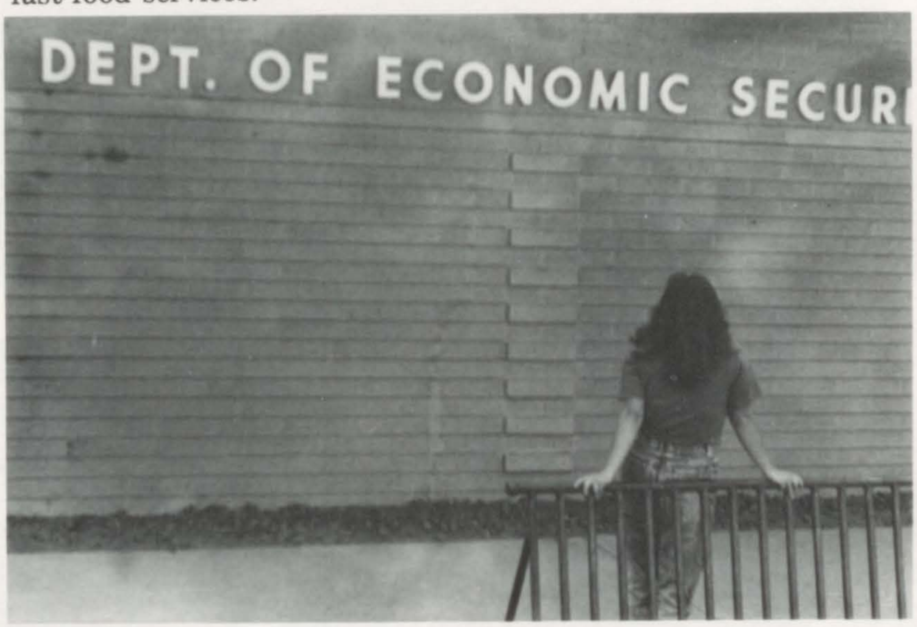

...with surety and hope

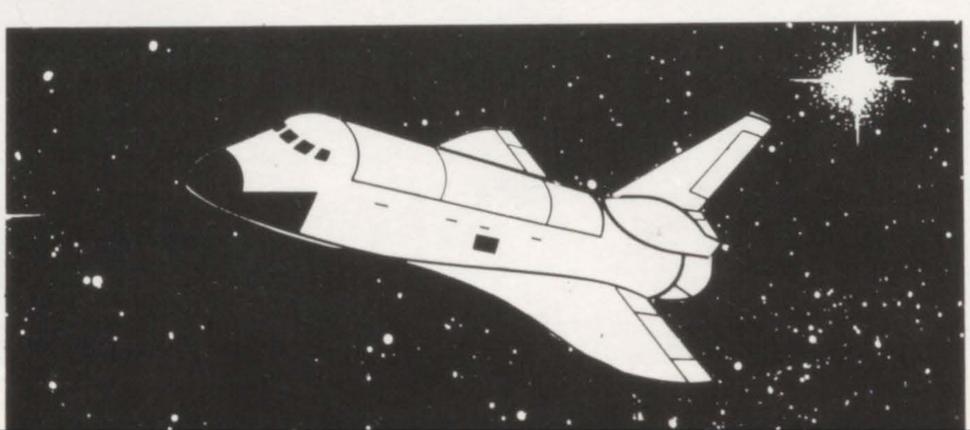

Some graduates will choose to enter the fast-food services.

Modern technology is, of course, a big part of our future.

Job security is a main concern of future graduates.

Each graduating senior must face his/her own future, and there are many different aspects of our future that we must consider, such as economic security. What type of job or jobs will we hold in the future? Will they be secure? How will finances and debts be handled?

Another aspect of our future is the armed services--many graduates will choose to enter one of the services, either straight out of high school or after college (R.O.T.C.). This is another option among many.

We obviously must decide which college we are to attend, if any, and how to pay for its expenses. College is the choice of most f the W.H.S. graduates, we believe.

These are only few of the different things that need to be considered by the graduates, because what they decide to do now and how they do it will most likely affect the rest of their lives.

Yearbook King was crowned

K ing
enny

This year's Meteor King was Kenneth Evans III. He was very active in such things as Choir, Speech and Drama, Technical Crew, W Club, Chess Club, and Indian Club over his four years at WHS. He was also a manager for varsity football, varsity wrestling, and varsity baseball. Not much was known about the other aspects of Kenneth's life, including what he does for excitement when he's not going to school. Who knows... he might come back to the class reunion and have a more exciting life than the rest of us!!

Queen chosen for "bossy" style

Sherry Moss

Sherry "Yvonne" Moss was involved in many school activities. You might have seen her playing in the band or bossing people around in the S Club.

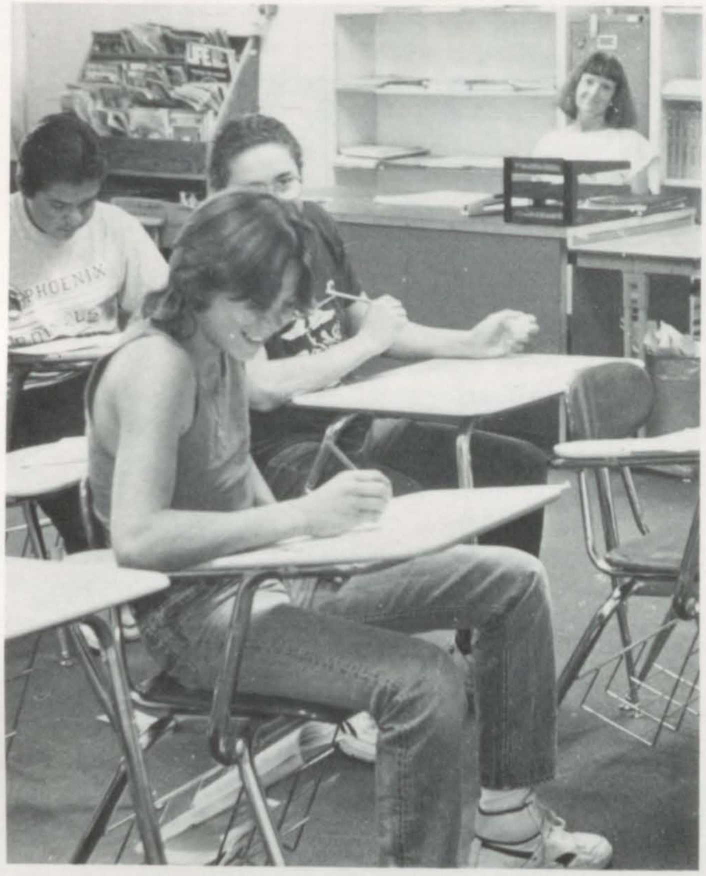

She was also secretary of the Honor Society and chairperson of the prom committee.

Sherry's curious nature, out going style, and fun-loving ways, have made her what she is today (a terrible pain that won't go away).

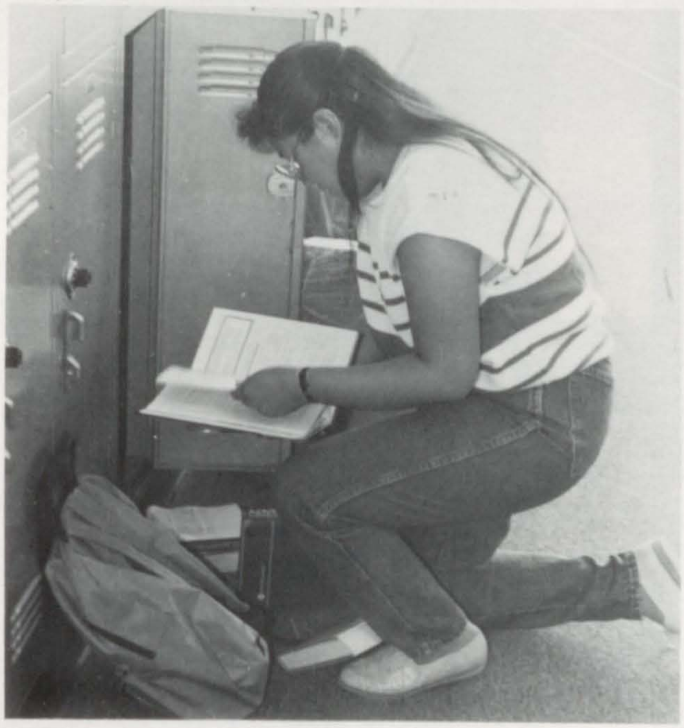

The good life is on its way

Henry Smith whispers to Manuel Montoya, "Smile for the photographers!"

Jerilyn Otero searches for lost homework.

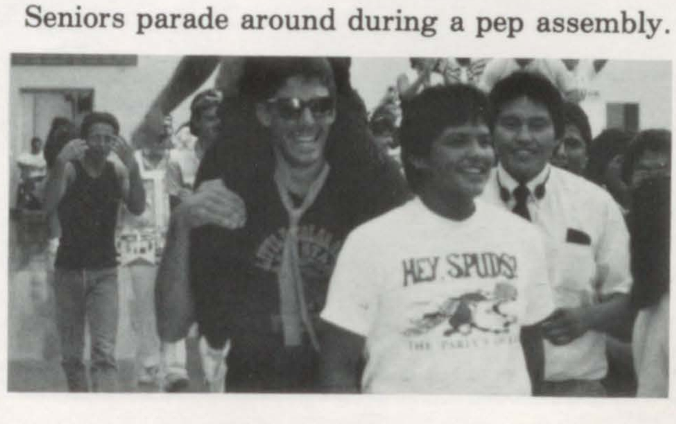

What is that big smile for Mark Pollard? Maybe we should ask Elisha Johns...

"I give up!",replies Pamela Salazar.

Seniors parade around during a pep assembly.

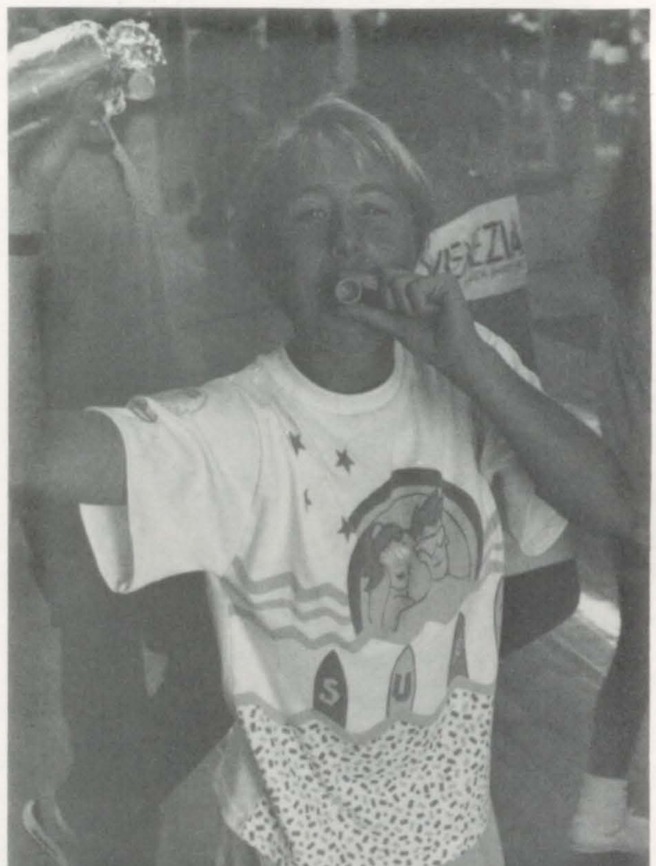

Mark Bullmore doesn't seem as excited in the music as Kristy Ramsey, Vicki Milligan, Leif Garner, and Todd Aberle.

These students seem to be having too much fun.

Chosen for excellence

This year's Dedicatee is Virginia Summersgill. She has been teaching for 19 years. Some of the subjects she has taught are English, typing, and remedial reading.

Currently, she is the school librarian and the sponsor for Honor Society. Mrs. Summersgill is also the Curriculum Coordinator for Junior High and High School. She also has helped with musicals and has accompanied students for solos in choir. We are glad to have such a dedicated person in our school.

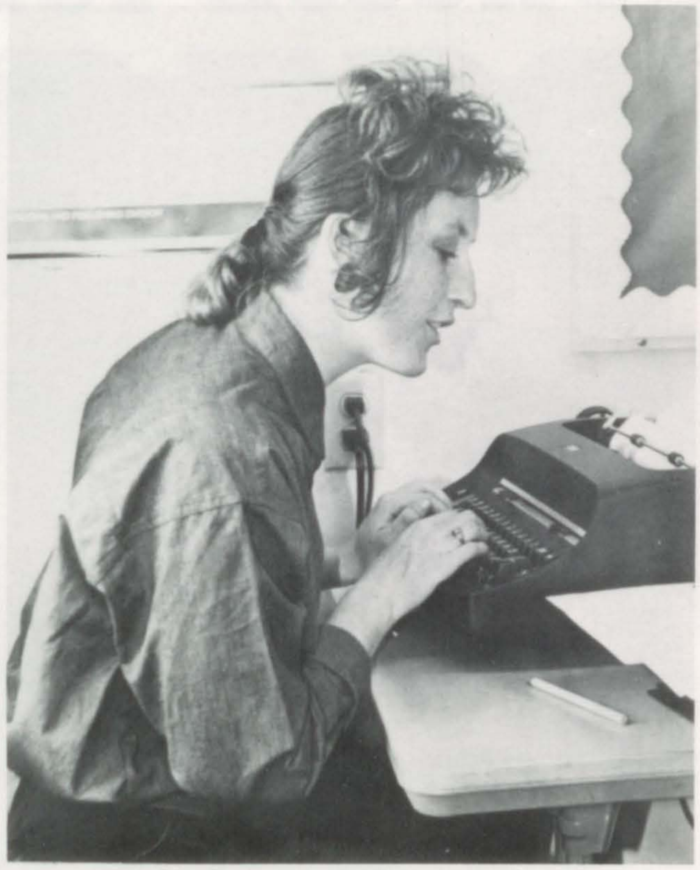

Dedicatee

Yearbook examined future!

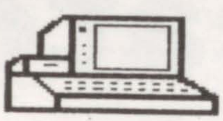

Micki Williams and Sandi Williams discuss their homework.

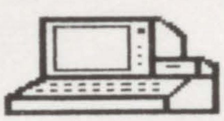

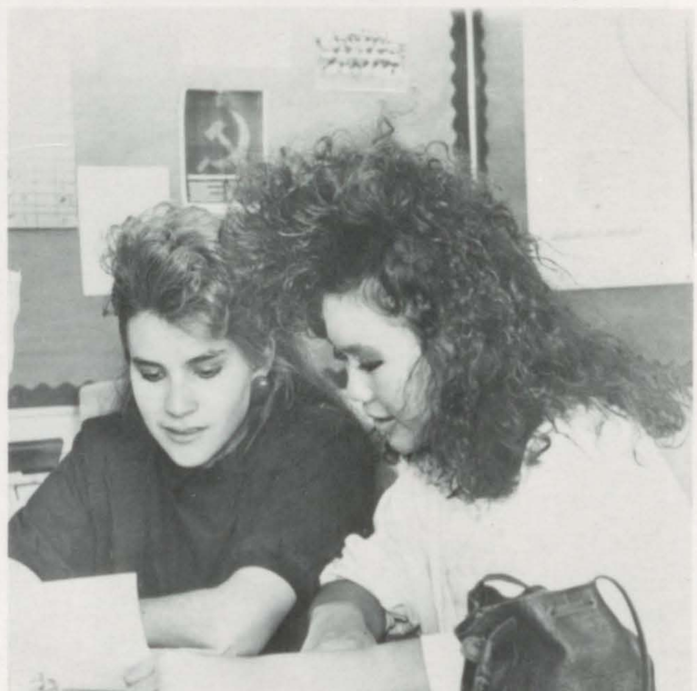

Becky Conatser types a sports story.

Editors Lita Gonzales and Barry Lancaster cut negatives.

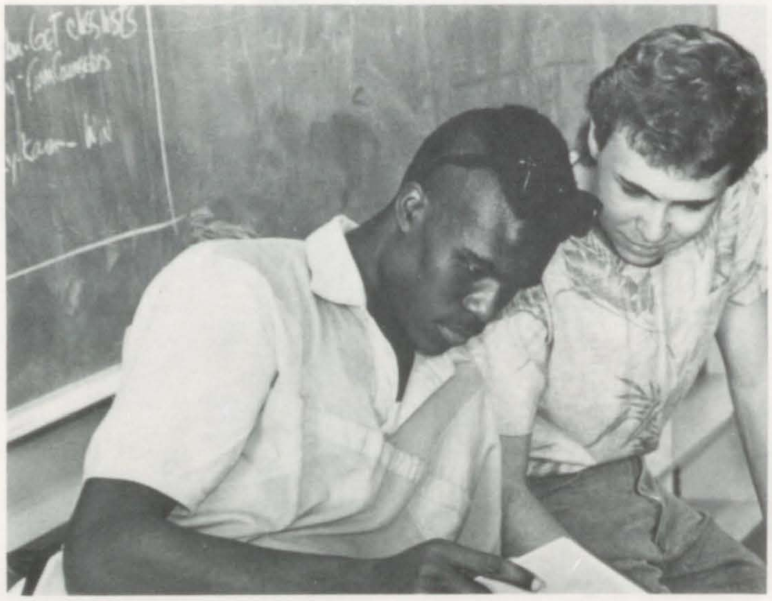

Amber Meritt and Dawn Seto look over layout ideas.

Sharon Joe files layout folders.

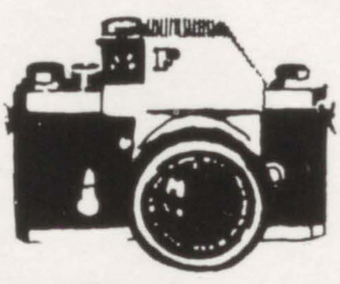

Donnell Mayberry and Aaron Duboise check over their work.

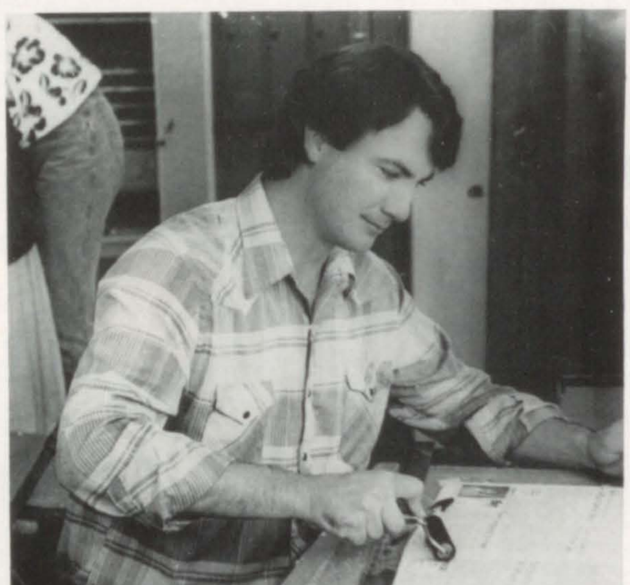

Stephen Ortiz avoids the classroom.

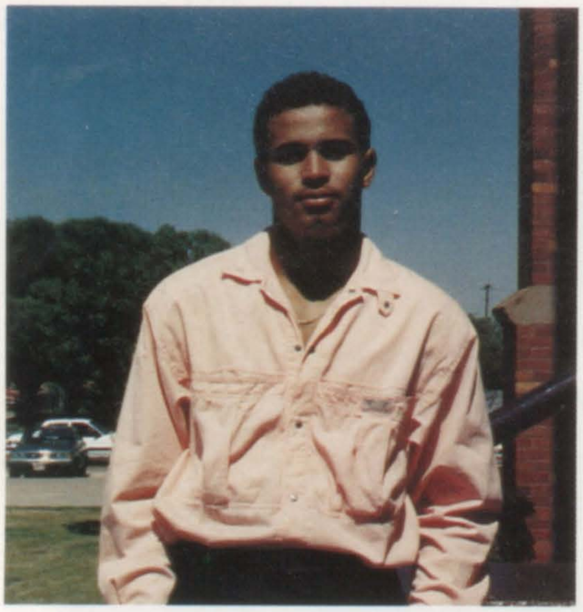

Nicole Nimtz cuts important pictures.

Mr. Taylor: "Hurry up and take the picture!!"

Virginia

The 1988-89 Student Body Officers had a very busy year. They attended a Leadership Conference at the beginning of the year and it really motivated them. They tried really hard to get everyone involved in school activities and to promote school spirit and pride. They were really interested in helping students with drug problems and started a drug awareness program. This year's officers really cared about the student body.

STUDENT COUNCIL 1988-89

Future flyers get their wings

Student Council was a very entusiastic group this year. A few of the members attended a Leadership Conference in Show Low early in September. They came back with many exciting new ideas to promote school spirit and to get more people involved in school activities. One of the funnier things they came back with was the National Order of Buzzards.

If you don't know what this means ask a member today. Student Council did their usual activities such as the slave auction and the Howdy Dance. They also started a drug awareness program.

Council members included Virginia Hancock, Steve Ortiz, Becky Conatser, Elana Rodriguez, Kristi Ramsey, Michelle Gonzales, Lynne Baca, Sativa Peterson, Tim Wilcox, Yolanda Montano, Paula Parsons, Doug Walton, Paul Baca, Lori Sheets, Adam Leeds, Chad Adams, Jennifer Huckabee, Jolene Pfulb, Jeff Hardy, Stacey Baca, Shan Almon, Shannon Long, Betsy Simonton, Sandi Williams, Micki Williams, Kelli Bull, Mark Pollard, Stephanie Goodman, and Amber Meritt.

Activities were outstanding!!

Art classes showed a great deal of artistic ability.

Pom Line hams it up!!!

Dodie Montoya

Lucy Horner

Joe Benham

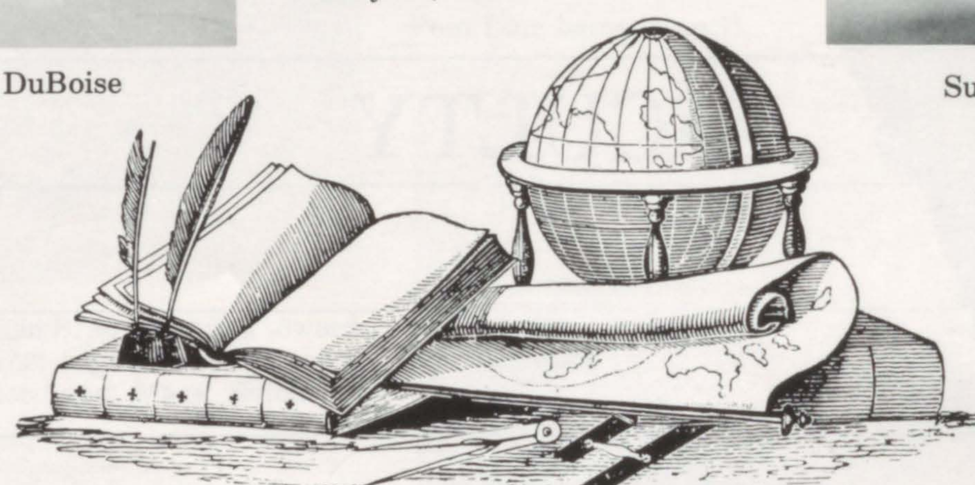

Terry DuBoise

As a result of the 1988 elections in November, this year's governing board was Sue Hancock, Terry DuBoise, Joe Benham, Lucy Horner, and Dodie Montoya. The new members were Terry and Dodie, while Lucy retained her seat. Joe and Sue's seats were not up this year.

Among the many things the board did this year, they approved giving 1/4 credit a semester to pep band members. Their program of building improvements to the elementary schools was continued this year, too.

The future looked bright

April Gose and Amanda Walters

Yvonne Poleheptewa

I remember best.....

Kevin the day I met Dale Murphy of the Atlanta Braves.
Sharon November 11, 1988.
Dodie when I was inducted into the Honor Society.
Terra sitting with Kris and Teresa, and embarrassing Mr. Natseway so much he had to go into his office.
Todd being crowned Homecoming King.
Becky beating Snowflake at the state semi-finals.
Charmaine when I won the lottery and Tom Cruise asked me to marry him.
Kenny when the Bulldog Review was on the air.

Derrick Land carries the ball for a TD!

The 1988 edition of the Winslow football team experienced an exciting season. After a slow start due to a new coaching staff and offensive system, the Bulldogs pulled off a 7-4-1 season and a berth in the state quarterfinals.

Although the team lost many fine young men to graduation, the coaching staff felt that many outstanding players will return for the 1989 season.

The Bulldogs advanced to the second round of the playoffs this year. Hopefully, the Bulldogs of 1989 will accept the challenge of continued success.

The 1988 Bulldog Volleyball team had a winning, yet disappointing season. They were one of the most talented teams WHS has ever put on the court. The excellent hitters, setters, and back row had pride and worked very hard at practice.

The team fell short in a few crucial games and faced Snowflake in the divisional tournament. The Bulldogs bowed to the Lobos for the third time. A win would have put the Bulldogs into the state tournament.

The Bulldogs ended the season with 13 wins and 9 losses overall and 7-5 in conference play where they finished fifth.

Four players made the all-division team: Becky Conatser and Karen Cox, first team; Elisha Johns, second team; and Kristi Ramsey, honorable mention.

Head coach Liz McLaws commented, "I was disappointed, and I thought we would finish much higher; however, I really enjoyed this year. They are a great bunch of girls to work with."

The team ended the season with a barbecue out in the boonies where the underclassmen said farewell to the six seniors.

Cathy Peralta, Michelle Gonzales, and Micki Williams wait for a set from Becky.

Winslow High School alumni lift the school spirit of the students at the Homecoming assembly.

After a long week of hard work, Homecoming was a complete success. The freshmen showed school spirit by winning with their debut float. The second, third, and fourth places were taken by the juniors, sophomores, and seniors. The Honor Society took top honors in the decorated car division while the Indian Club took second place.

Dedicatees were Mr. Al Fritz, who has worked at WHS for more than 20 years, and Raymond Gonzales, who has made a remarkable recovery from an auto accident.

Todd Aberle and Virginia Hancock were crowned King and Queen.

"Don't Stop at the Top" was this year's theme chosen by the cheerleaders. The assembly was a great success for all of the support squads and others who performed skits.

The sports clubs at the high school were very busy this year. Including the Hoop Club, V Club, Track Club, the Lady Diamonds, Football Club, and the Wrestling Club, the organizations participated in many fund raising activities.

To raise money, each club sold jackets, popcorn, concessions during meets and tournaments, candy, and other items. By raising money and engaging in different activities, the clubs provided support for the teams they represented.

The Vocational Technical Club also participated in school activities and assemblies. They participated in the homecoming parade and and provided instruction and guidance to all IA students. The club also installed a soft drink machine in the IA building to build up their accounts.

LADY DIAMONDS: Lynne Baca, Lori Sheets, Michelle Gonzales, and Kristi Ramsey.

V CLUB - Bottom: Tonya Billy, Rebecca Quintana, Benita Adams, and Ema Espinosa. Middle: Sharon Cox, Cathy Peralta, and Kristi Ramsey. Top: Karen Cox, Melissa Gilbert, Becky Conatser, Micki Williams, and Sandi Williams.

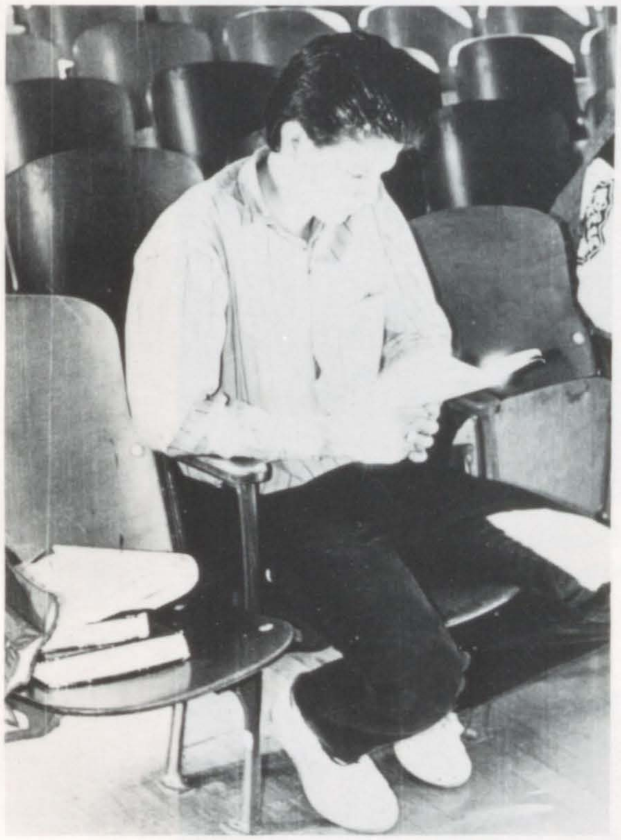

HOOP CLUB: Steve Ortiz, Lynne Baca, Lance Freeman, and Sharon Cox.

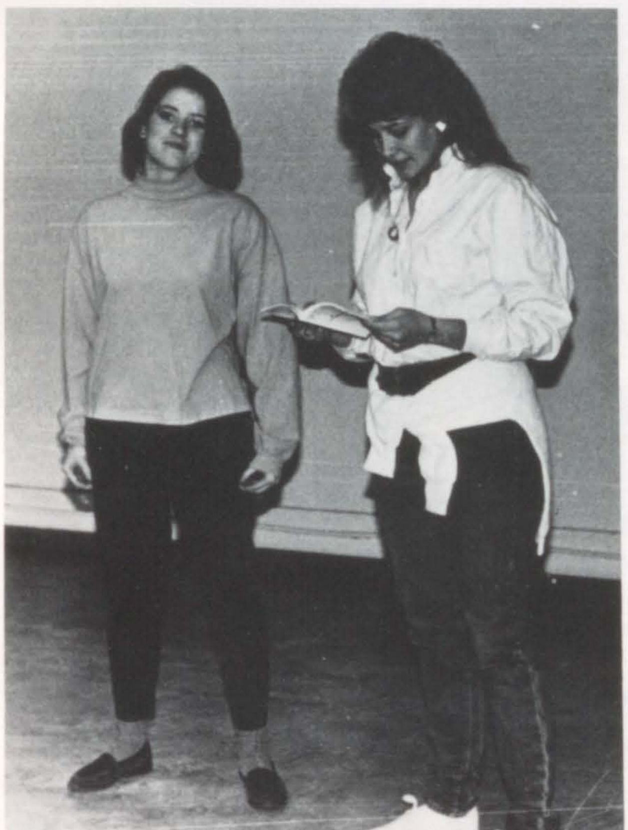

VOCATIONAL TECHNICAL - Bottom: Richie Bratt, Brandon Scott, Chad Adams, Jennifer Potter, and Christa Herman. Middle: Jason Rogers, Paul Baca, Richard Carmody, Darcee Ansell, Jeannie McLaws, and Tisha Langston. Top: Paul Pruett and Doug Walton.

Even though it may have been touch and go at times, you made it! Your high school days are behind you now — a collection of fine memories of people, places & fun. But don't despair. Take a look at what lies ahead.

New challenges. Exciting adventures. And more fun! So, keep your chin up. Your nose to the grindstone. And go for the gusto!

Life is what you make it, so make it the best. And remember, all your friends at Valley Bank wish you all good things in your future.

Happy Graduation!

To: Lynne Baca

Thanks for the memories.

Love,
Mom and Dad

To Becky,
You are a special friend to me
You tell me how you feel.
And when I see you smile at me,
I know our friendship's real.
Your meaning is beyond the surface,
It's deep within my heart.
I can't explain my love for you,
But maybe I can start...
Your actions support me,
And help me to grow.
They fulfill my life,
You've let me know.
They tell me a story,
And bring not a lie.
Each day it becomes stronger,
As time passes by.
Let's keep building upon it,
For eternity.
Because I love you,
And you love me.

Best Friends Always
Sharon

Dear Craig
Life is amazing and can be wonderful at times. It goes in phases.
You are leaving a big phase of you life as you graduate from high school. We wanted you to know how proud we are of you.
Congratulations on all you success and for doing such a great job in everything. We love you very much, and you will be in our hearts forever.

Lovingly
Mom and Dad

"I'm Remembering'

Today I'm remembering all the times
That you took the time to remember me.
Not just on the occasions,
That called for a greeting.
But all those inbetween times,
When you wrote or called,
Or let me know in some way,
That you cared.
I'm remembering the times,
You went out of your way for me,
As well as the fun times we shared,
That have given me such happy memories.
And on this Special Day,
I want you to know, what a difference
You've made in my world.
And I want to wish you everything happy,
Everything good, and everything beautiful,
In your world.
Good luck!
I love you Anthony!

Love Always
Jenette

To Felicia Gilbert and Sharon Dorame
Congratulations! I wish you happiness and successful lives.
Good luck and behave yourselves.
Take care '89!

Love
Deanna "90" Wilcox

You know what I mean!
You ain't nobody!
Get out of my face
I didn't do it!
What are you trying to say? Make like a banana and split
I don't care Just do it!
You know. I don't know
Smiles to thrash

Dear Mindy,
The years have gone by too fast and you have grown into a beautiful young woman. You have set a great example for your sisters to follow. You've worked hard at school and at work and have passed the test. Your future is bright and full of surprises! We are very proud of you.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Barry & Lita

We, Barry Lancaster and Lita Gonzales, being of demented minds and tall/short bodies, do hereby bequeath to Mr. Taylor two more weird and crazy (but fun??) people like us to take over our old jobs. To the future editors, the patience to put up with all of the gripes, moans, and groans from everyone else, the ability to take charge, and the ability to keep their heads when nobody likes their ideas. That may or may not happen, but it did with us, we can tell you. To the rest of the staff, we leave the ability to make another yearbook almost (but not quite) as good as this one. To our friends, good luck in the future, and stay out of trouble with the police. To our past and present teachers and the rest of the W.H.S. staff, thanks a million--you proved that we weren't brain-dead after all. To everyone else, NOTHING!!!
